

French and fashion

Course designed for:

- * Fashion professionals working in haute couture, prêt-à-porter, lingerie, accessories, perfume, jewellery
- * Future students of the major fashion schools

* Fashion fanatics
LEVEL REQUIRED
A2

Dates

- * 13th - 24th
February 2006
- * 4th - 15th
September 2006

Course fees:
590 euros
for 2 weeks

Objectives of the Course

- To prepare students to work in the sectors of haute couture, prêt-à-porter, perfume, jewellery, and decorative arts.
- To enable students to recruit or to apply for a position in this sector.
- To familiarise students with French and foreign brands, major designers, materials, styles...
- To develop students' lexical and cultural knowledge of fashion in France.

Thematic content

- ◇ Professions in fashion linked to haute couture, prêt-à-porter, perfume, jewellery.
- ◇ History of French haute couture: stylists, foreign influences, fashion shows, the great fashion houses.
- ◇ Materials, styles, fashions, fragrances
- ◇ Distribution : imports/exports, the fashion industry.
- ◇ Specialised press: foreign photography, fashion shows

Schedule

From Monday to Friday:
 9.00—13.00
General French

Monday:
 From 14.00
Galliera Museum (1st week)
Fashion and Textile Museum (2nd week)

Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday
 14.15 - 17.15
Thematic workshops

CONTACT

Carole ROGER
c.roger@accord-langues.com
33 1 55 33 52 33